

Chief Deputy of Public Relations and Employee
Development Davidson County
Circuit Court Clerk's Office

Joseph P. Day

Joseph Day is currently the Chief Deputy of Public Relations and Employee Development for the Circuit Court Clerk of Davidson County. He is a dedicated public servant and has a wide range of experience from working in various roles for the Circuit Court Clerk's Office since 2001. Joseph was one of the project leads on the implementation of the electronic filing system in the offices of the Circuit Court Clerk. He represents the offices of the Circuit Court Clerk within the community and maintains quality working relationships with governmental, legal, business and professional organizations. Joseph also fosters employee development programs for the organization and promotes its various public information activities.