NAMI
National Alliance on Mental Illness
Davidson County

NAMI Davidson County is an independently funded and operated 501.c.3 affiliate of the largest national organization dedicated to supporting, educating, advocating and creating awareness on behalf of persons with mental health issues and their loved ones. We help at all ages, stages, genders, socio-economic levels, faiths and cultures. Most of our services are free, and our signature programs are evidenced-based. We are active advocates in the community serving on the Mayor's Behavioral Wellness Advisory Council, the Department of Mental Health's regional and state planning and policy councils, the Suicide Prevention in the African American Faith Community Coalition, and several other advocacy and policy based committees.
