Commitment: The Old Hickory Area Chamber of Commerce is composed of businesses and area residents who are committed to enhancing the economic and social development of the Old Hickory area. By joining together, members pledge to support the businesses of chamber members and work with community interest groups to create plans for the economic development of the community. You can also expect your chamber to take a stand on issues which will directly affect not just members of the chamber, but the entire Old Hickory area.

Support: Chamber activities include monthly meetings featuring guest speakers, business mixers, special promotional activities, social gatherings and more. The Chamber provides content through email, social media, and by inviting key community members to our events.

Pride: When you join the Old Hickory Area Chamber of Commerce, you join a group of businesspeople who take pride in their community. They are members who lend their skills, time, and expertise to help make Old Hickory strong and prosperous.
